

Frank & Hannah

HELLO

We want to thank you so much for taking the time to look at our book. While we can't personally understand how difficult this process and decision has been for you, we want you to know that we are honored that you would consider us to possibly be the adoptive parents of your child. We pray that you have complete peace over your decision and are filled with joy in the days ahead knowing that you have done what you felt was best for your child.

We are Frank & Hannah from Hamilton, Ohio. We have been married since June 2012. We have a fun-loving relationship, we are the best of friends and just so excited to become parents together.

We have been praying for the Lord to open doors for us to start a family for several years and feel so thankful for His leading in us to adopt.

OUR PROMISE TO YOU

We want you to know that if you should choose us, we would pour our love into your child and make sure they know each day how cherished they are - not only by us, but by you. We would pray for them and with them daily and would always be there to answer any questions they may have about how they came to be a part of our family.

If your wishes are for a closed adoption, we would completely respect that decision, but if your desire is for an open adoption, we want you to know that we would consider it a privilege to honor your wishes for openness with face to face visits, photos and letters. We hope to meet you soon!

OUR STORY

We met in West Virginia when we were in college in 2010. It didn't take us long to know that we wanted to spend all our days together. We got married in June 2012 and started off our lives living in West Virginia while Frank finished college.

We bought our first home together in 2014. We have a joyful, Christ-centered marriage and have learned how to communicate well over the years and how to show genuine, selfless love to each other. We enjoy spending all the time we can together - whether it be simple evening walks in the neighborhood or exciting family vacations. We are truly the best of friends and praise God for blessing our marriage the way that He has. We were thrilled to be able to move to Ohio in 2022 and have the opportunity to be closer to our family here. We love our home and our life here together. We have a wonderful support system around us with our family, neighbors and church.

We have been praying for the Lord to guide us in starting our family for many years now. We have always wanted to experience becoming parents and we truly are so thankful for this opportunity to pursue adoption. We have complete peace and excitement over the evident leading that adoption is the avenue through which we will grow our family. We think adoption is such a beautiful thing and we have already been in prayer for whomever our child will be - that we can love and support them in the unique way that they will need and to help them understand in every way we can what adoption means and how they came to be a part of our family. We will feel complete and overjoyed the day that our little one joins our family. Words cannot express our anticipation and excitement. We know they will be worth the wait.

I want to introduce you to my wife, Hannah. She grew up in West Virginia and had a wonderful childhood with two loving parents and an older sister. She graduated from a Bible college in 2011. She is a loving, joyful person. She worked for several years as a receptionist in a dental office as well as dental assisting. She is now a homemaker and absolutely loves pouring herself into our home and all that goes along with taking care of it and our two energetic pups, Sydney and Duke. She is very close with our family and loves getting to spend as much time with them as possible, especially our nieces Milah and Mali. She loves the beach and getting to experience new places.

Hannah is the love of my life. She is one of the most caring people I have ever met. Watching her interact with our nieces shows me that she is going to be an amazing mother and I will be excited to get to watch her experience that one day. She has prayed to become a mother for such a long time now. I know that she will devote her life to loving and caring for our child and I can't wait to experience all of the things that go along with parenthood with her by my side.

I want to introduce you to my husband, Frank. He grew up in Florida and eventually left to go to college in West Virginia where he graduated with a degree from a Bible College. He is a happy, fun-loving person and cares deeply about others. He is energetic and loves to do anything outdoors. While still in college during our first year of marriage, he worked as a white water rafting guide and loved every minute of it. He eventually took interest in working for a power company and has been in that field of work for several years now. It is his job as a lineman that brought us to Ohio. He is passionate about his career and we are so thankful for how it has provided for our family.

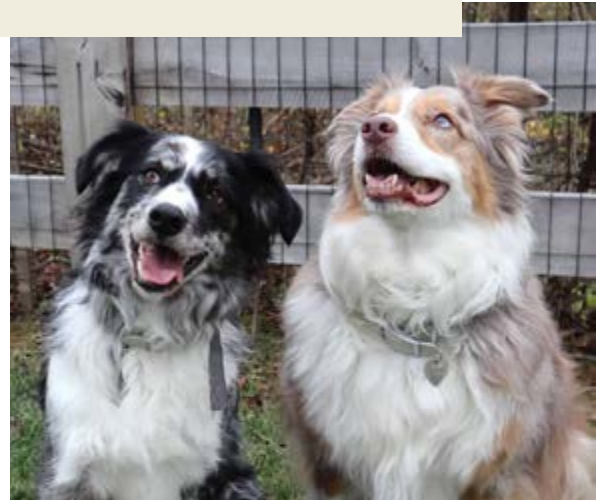

I love Frank's personality. He is positive and kind and so patient with me, even when I'm running late. He is a nurturing husband and I know he will be an amazing father. I can't wait to watch him bond with our child. He talks so often about all of the activities he can't wait to do with our son or daughter, but also how much he looks forward to just being able to sit and hold our baby and experience all the things that come along with being a father, even the hard things, too.

OUR HOME & COMMUNITY

Our home is so special to us. We moved into this home in 2022 and have loved settling down here. The neighborhood is quiet and peaceful and we are blessed with kind and genuine neighbors surrounding us. We think so often about what it will be like to bring our child home here. We have had a specific room ready and waiting for awhile and have been praying continually that it would be filled with that sweet special one in the Lord's timing.

One thing we love is our evening walks in our neighborhood - always with our pups in tow: Sydney, a 9 year old Australian Shepherd and Duke, a 6 year old Australian Shepherd/Border Collie mix. They are sweet, energetic and fun and have brought us so much joy over the years. We talk all the time about how excited we are to have our child in their stroller along for our evening walks.

Our church is also very special to us. We have a wonderful church family that is so loving and so supportive of us in our pursuit of adoption and our desire to become parents. We will cherish being able to take our child to church with us.

Our relationship with Jesus Christ is what our marriage and our individual lives are centered on. We want our child to know and understand how deeply Christ loves them. We will always pray that the Lord enables us to be the parents that He has called us to be and to make His love known to them each day.

MEET

Our Family

Our family is so special to us and one of the greatest gifts in our life! We are blessed to live near Hannah's parents, sister and brother-in-law and nieces. Hannah's parents are Steve & Sharon. They live here in Ohio. They are wonderful parents and grandparents. We love getting to live close to them and know they will be so involved in our child's life just as they are in Milah and Mali's lives. Their greatest joy in life is their grandchildren.

Frank's mother, Barbara lives in Kennesaw, Georgia. She visits a few times a year and is very excited to become a grandma. We can bet her visits will increase even more once we add a little one to our family. Frank's father and Barbara's husband, Roy passed away May 2023. We know he would have cherished becoming a grandpa. He was a wonderful man and is greatly missed.

Jessica and Justin are Hannah's sister and brother-in-law. They are such a fun couple and wonderful parents to our nieces. They are so excited to have the opportunity to become an aunt and uncle. We have always had such a great relationship with them and are such close friends. Hannah and Jessica, being sisters are comically alike and Justin and Frank bond over their love of disc golf.

Our sweet nieces are Milah (5 years old) and Mali (1 year old). They both joined our family through adoption and are so loved by all who meet them. Milah is vibrant, joyful and so funny. We are always laughing about something clever she says and she is the best big sister to Mali. She is endlessly patient with her and kind. Mali is a true delight. We love seeing her personality come to life more each day. She is such a happy baby and she has an infectious smile. She lights up like no other when her mommy comes in the room. Having our nieces and our future child bond over the ways they joined our family is sure to be a special blessing.

A LITTLE MORE ABOUT US

We introduced you to our parents, siblings and nieces, but also wanted to add that we have many aunts, uncles and cousins as well. Most live within only a few hours distance and will be a huge blessing to our child's life. Hannah's grandma, Sandy resides in West Virginia and loves being a great granny to Justin and Jessica's daughters. Frank has a lot of family members that still live in Florida along with some other nearby states and Hannah has some extended family in Tennessee and Florida as well. We have many friends that enjoy visiting periodically from our old hometown in West Virginia also.

Holidays are so special to us - especially Christmas. We both remember many special childhood memories with family and we can't wait to make the holidays a special time for our child.

One thing that we enjoy as a family is when we have the opportunity to take vacations together, especially to the beach. Emerald Isle, North Carolina is one of our favorite places to visit as a couple. Cruises are also among one of our favorite ways to vacation. All of these memories are special to us, but we know that nothing will compare with having our child along side us for all of the adventures to come and something that is so worth the wait.

OUR Promise

We want to tell you that we have been praying for the birth parents of whomever our child will be for a long time now, and if that is you, we want you to know that our hearts are with you and we love you and we want to be a blessing to your life.

If we are the couple that you choose to adopt your child, we want you to be assured that we would love them completely and our lives would be forever changed for the better. A true answer to prayer. Thank you again for your time and consideration.

Prayerfully yours,
Frank & Hannah
