

Taylor & Jared

Dear Birth Parent(s),

We begin this letter with immense gratitude and respect for the incredibly brave and selfless decision you are making. We can only imagine the emotion that has led you to this moment. Your courage and love shine brightly through choosing adoption for your precious child.

Your decision holds immense weight, and we're deeply appreciative that you're considering us. We hope this book gives you a detailed look into our lives and the life we would provide for your child.

We eagerly await the opportunity to embark on this journey together, creating a life full of cherished moments, laughter, and boundless love for your child.

With love,
Tayler & Jared

How we met

We crossed paths in November 2020 on an online dating platform. Right from the start, we felt an immediate connection due to our shared passions for family, gaming, and similar hobbies. We didn't date for long before getting engaged in the middle of 2021.

We married in May of 2022 surrounded by family and friends.

About Jared

What Tayler has to say about Jared

“Jared is very compassionate and he has this ability to connect with every person he comes across. He’s selfless, great at communicating, and very funny.”

It’s been great to watch him grow as an uncle to our niece and nephew. He jumps right into playing Barbie’s or Gabby’s Playhouse with our niece and dinosaurs or construction with our nephew. I know he’ll be a great dad and he’ll always put our kiddo’s happiness as a priority.”

Jared is the eldest among his siblings, born just four minutes ahead of his twin brother, and there's an additional set of twins among them. He loves to play the bass guitar, has fond memories of playing the tuba, clarinet, trumpet, and baronet in high school, and hopes to pass his love for music to his children.

Jared has a wide taste in music that is most noticeable anytime he sets his Spotify favorites playlist on shuffle. A collection he holds dear is a sentimental collection of records that hold memories of his father.

Professionally, Jared works as a carrier management specialist and has been at his company of employment for over 11 years.

Jared's Favorites

Dessert: Cookies and Cream Ice Cream

Food: Italian

Band: Oingo Boingo

Activity: Gaming, Trying New Restaurants

About Tayler

What Jared has to say about Tayler

“Tayler is a caring and thoughtful person who regularly checks on those close to her. She’s very silly and can often be found singing and dancing around the house with our pets.

Tayler's unique ability to see the best in people and her abundant patience are qualities that I appreciate. She also values spending quality time with our family and can always be found looking for an excuse to gather.”

Taylor is the eldest of three siblings and has two younger brothers. Her parents have always made sure their home was filled with lots of love and laughter and she has many positive memories growing up alongside her large extended family.

Taylor is an avid board game enthusiast who cherishes quality time spent with loved ones during game nights.

Taylor taught middle school math for 7 years, but has since transitioned into a career based around data analytics. She has multiple Master's degrees and her love of learning began at an early age with weekly trips to the library with her mother.

Taylor's Favorites

Snack: Warm chocolate chip cookies and a glass of milk

Food: A tie between pizza and pasta

Music: R&B and Pop

Activity: Play board games, Rounds of Mini-Golf

Our Home

One of our favorite things to do together has been making our house into a home. We host many gatherings for our family and friends including birthdays, baby showers, and holidays.

Our house also has a large backyard and we plan to add things out back like a swing set, trampoline and more.

We like to keep one of the front windows open so our cats can look out at the neighborhood.

Here is our nursery, backyard, kitchen, and living room.

One of many splash parks in our area.

Jared, his mom,
and our niece
(Madeline) at the nearby splash park

Our Community

Our house is within walking distance to the nearest elementary and high school. We're very fortunate that Jared's mom also lives in the same community and is less than 5 minutes away by car and close enough to walk to. Our home is also close to several splash parks we frequent in the summer with our niece and nephew.

Our neighborhood has diversity in the race of residents that reside in it and we also have several young kids in the neighborhood who play together outdoors.

Our Dogs

Evee

Willie and Evee are both rescues with big hearts.

Evee loves soft toys intended for the cats and to show love through giving out hand kisses.

Willie

Willie is the sweetest, cuddliest boy! He loves getting pampered with hugs, kisses, and cuddles. His favorite spot in the house is wherever Jared is.

Our Cats

Beau

Maple

Annalise

All of our cats are also rescues. Annalise is the oldest, followed by Maple, and Beau is the youngest of all our pets.

Beau loves cuddling with Tayler in the morning, talking to anyone who will listen, and eating. Maple enjoys grooming his brother and taking naps. Annalise enjoys lounging in the sun near windows and watching the leaves fall off the trees at the start of autumn.

Our Adventures

Beignets in New Orleans

Boo at the Zoo with our niece and
nephew

Trying a local BBQ restaurant with Tayler's parents

Large family dinner
for Mother's Day

Dinner at the Melting Pot for Tayler's birthday

Graduation dinner

Riding the trolley
in New Orleans

Family brunch to celebrate Tayler's
mom's birthday

Family

Boo at the Zoo
2023

Top Row: Elvin, Jordan (Jared's Twin), Carter (Nephew), Jared, and Tayler

Bottom Row: Mamaw, Sydney, Madeline (Niece), and Ellie

Father's Day
Dinner

Left: Friends Kasia & Emma, Cousin Ashley, Aunt Bridgett, and Memaw

Right: Uncles Isaiah & William, Jared, Granny and Pops (Tayler's Parents)

Shopping for Tayler's Wedding
Dress

Grammy (Jared's Mom), Aunt Bridgett, Granny (Tayler's mom), Memaw, Aunt Tremice

Our family loves to have a reason to get together and share a meal. We celebrate milestones and holidays as a big group. We also love to get together to play board games and just enjoy each other's company.

Family

Boo at the Zoo
2023 with our niece and nephew

Jared, his dad, and his twin brother at his brother's wedding

Jared with his mom and younger brother.

Matching
Christmas PJs

Friends

A surprise birthday party for Jared

A small baby shower for a friend we hosted

Our friend's kid trying on the construction vest we got him for his birthday

Showing up for our friend's kid's dance recital

Playing Jenga at one of our "Just Because" hangouts

Trying out a dessert shop with a friend visiting town

Our promise to you is a pledge of boundless love, unwavering support, and a lifetime of dedication to your child's well-being. We are committed to providing a nurturing, stable, and joyful home where your child will thrive, surrounded by warmth, encouragement, and endless opportunities to explore their passions.

We promise to honor and embrace your child's unique heritage, fostering a deep understanding and appreciation of their background. Your child will grow up knowing their story, feeling proud of their identity, and understanding the love that led to their adoption. We are open to maintaining a connection should you desire, ensuring that your role in their life is acknowledged and respected.

Our commitment is to cherish, guide, and love your child unconditionally, offering them a life filled with happiness, laughter, and endless possibilities. Your child will be welcomed into our hearts and our family with open arms, forever and always.

Thank you for taking the time to get to know us deeper through this book.

With heartfelt gratitude,
Tayler & Jared

