“Family is where

LIFE BEGINS

and LOVE NEVER ENDS”

HELLO

WE ARE EXCITED TO “MEET” YOU!

We are writing with deep respect, gratitude, and compassion. We want you to know how much we admire your strength and courage as you make decisions that are both loving and selfless.

If you choose to entrust your child to our family, please know that we will honor your love and hopes for your child every day. Our home is filled with warmth, laughter, and unwavering support. Our faith in God is at the heart of our family, guiding us to live with love, compassion, and gratitude. We pray for wisdom and strength as parents, and we promise to provide a nurturing environment where your child will be encouraged to grow, learn, and follow their dreams with God's guidance and grace.

Love,
Sarah + Brian

OUR STORY GOES LIKE THIS...

WE MET WHILE

in high school running cross country and felt an immediate connection. What began as long runs quickly turned into hours on the phone and countless moments spent side by side. We became each other's best friends.

After college, we were engaged and soon married, both sharing a deep desire to become parents and build a family together. God blessed us with our son, Camden, and our daughter, Gemma, filling our lives with more love and purpose than we could have imagined.

CALLED TO ADOPT

After welcoming Camden and Gemma into our lives, we were no longer able to conceive. While we are incredibly grateful for them, we both feel deeply that our family is not yet complete and that God is calling us to grow in another way. Adoption is something we feel strongly drawn to as we continue this journey. We have so much more love to give and would be honored to share that love with another child.

I'M SARAH

I grew up as one of five girls in a home filled with laughter, love, and a strong sense of togetherness. My parents have been married for over 40 years, and watching their enduring commitment, kindness, and respect for one another taught me from a very young age what a loving family looks like. Those early experiences planted a deep desire in my heart to one day become a mother and to create the same sense of warmth, security, and joy for my own children.

I have been incredibly blessed to raise Cam and Gemma, and being their mom is one of the greatest joys of my life. Our family is full of love, connection, and shared moments, and my heart knows there is still more love to give. I truly look forward to the possibility of welcoming another child into our family and offering them a home filled with unconditional love. My marriage to Brian and the life we share with our children mean everything to me, and we would be so honored to grow our family through adoption.

As a pediatric registered nurse, I have been fortunate to have the flexibility to be there for our children. I work part-time and can adjust my schedule to whatever phase of life we are in, ensuring I can be present at home. Being a nurse has strengthened me as a mother, and motherhood has, in turn, made me a better nurse. I love my career but my number one priority is being a wife and mother. I feel truly fortunate to be able to do both.

BRIAN'S WORDS ABOUT SARAH...

There's no one else I'd rather go through life with than Sarah. She is the quiet strength in my life. Always caring and patient, she is a constant source of comfort and warmth. She pours her love into every part of her life, nurturing as a mother, devoted as a wife, and selfless in all she gives to others. Her kindness and support make our home a place of peace and belonging.

WHAT I AM LOVING THESE DAYS....

- Long walks with family and friends
- Finding a new coffee to enjoy
- Listening and singing along to music
- Watching any sporting event (especially if Cam and Gemma are playing)
- Being at home with family

I'M BRIAN

I was raised in a loving, close-knit family and am the oldest of four siblings. Family has always been at the heart of my life, and today I find so much joy in spending time with Sarah, Cam and Gemma. I was fortunate to grow up surrounded by extended family, all living close by, and those early experiences shaped my deep love for family and togetherness.

From a young age, I knew I wanted to be a father. I was inspired by my parents, who have been happily married for over 40 years and showed me the importance of commitment, love, and stability. Those values guide the way I parent today.

I am grateful to work in our family manufacturing business, which allows flexibility and time to be present for the people who matter most. I love being involved in our children's lives-whether that's coaching sports, traveling together, or playing in the backyard. Our faith and church community are also an important part of my life. Above all, my greatest blessings are my marriage and our two children.

SARAH'S WORDS ABOUT BRIAN....

Brian is the love of my life and the rock of our family. He is unwavering in his support and faithfulness to me and our children. As a spouse and a father, I truly could not ask for more. He is deeply compassionate, yet always knows when to bring fun and laughter into our lives. My love and appreciation for him continue to grow deeper every day.

WHAT I AM LOVING THESE DAYS....

- Making brunch on Sundays
- Coaching basketball at the middle school
- Golfing and fishing especially with Cam
- Playing board games with Gemma
- Taking long walks with Sarah and our dog

CAMDEN

Camden is our 13-year-old with a big love for sports—especially basketball. He has a kind heart, a thoughtful spirit, and wisdom beyond his years. Camden enjoys spending time with his family, being outdoors, drawing and enthusiastically jumping into whatever sport is in season. As an awesome big brother, he's especially excited as he looks forward to welcoming another sibling into the family.

GEMMA

Gemma is our 11-year-old free spirit. She has never met a stranger and has a heart full of kindness, especially for animals. She loves playing outside, creating all kinds of art, spending time with family, and staying active with sports. Gemma adores doing anything with her big brother and is already excited to become a wonderful big sister, eagerly awaiting the arrival of a new sibling.

CRUZ

OUR FOUR LEGGED FAMILY MEMBER

Cruz is our sweet rescue dog of two years. He loves everyone he meets, is incredibly friendly, and never turns down a good snuggle. We're so grateful to have him as part of our family for walks, playtime and lots of love.

TOGETHER IS OUR FAVORITE PLACE

WHERE WE REST OUR HEARTS

---

“A house is made of walls and beams; a
HOME is made with love and dreams.”

We live in a two-story home with a spacious yard that brings neighborhood kids together for pickle and wiffle ball games. The community is exceptionally family-friendly, and it's common to hear the sound of children laughing as they walk to school or play outside. We love being within walking distance of numerous parks and local shops, which we enjoy regularly.

Our home is located in one of the top-rated school districts in the state, and the neighborhood is consistently ranked among the safest in the region.

WE LOVE TO TRAVEL

OUR WEEKENDS LOOK LIKE

Our weekends are a special time for us to slow down and be together. We enjoy simple moments like taking walks outside, visiting our favorite ice cream shop, cheering at a basketball game, or spending time with friends and family. Sundays are especially meaningful, as we attend Mass, make a big breakfast together, and gather with extended family for Sunday dinner. We love being outdoors and sharing everyday moments.

MAKING MEMORIES

The moments we love most are made every day—sharing the highs and lows of our day around the dinner table, dancing and singing without a care in the world, and laughing with or at each other while doing something silly.

FAMILY

OUR EXTENDED FAMILY

We feel incredibly fortunate to have a large, loving family on both sides that live nearby. Holidays are always full of laughter, and we often gather just to spend time together. Our children are surrounded by seventeen fun-loving cousins, along with aunts, uncles, and grandparents who adore them and are always ready to play, read, or explore. We love traveling and seeking out new adventures with one another. They are a wonderful support system and are excited at the thought of welcoming another child into our lives.

TRADITIONS

OUR CELEBRATIONS + TRADITIONS

We cherish celebrating every holiday together as a family. From watching our city's Fourth of July parade, making peanut butter eggs at Easter, to playing a family football game on Thanksgiving, picking out our Christmas tree, and baking cookies together, these traditions mean so much to us. We also believe our kids should feel extra special on their birthday.

OUR FRIENDS

We are surrounded by a community of friends who fill our lives with love, laughter, and support. Our neighbors are more than just the people who live nearby—they are friends who show up, share everyday moments, and help make our neighborhood feel like home. Through our parish and small faith group, we are connected to families who walk alongside us in faith, encouragement, and service. We are also grateful for the families of our children's friends, who have become part of our extended family through shared milestones, school days, celebrations, and simple daily joys. Together, these friendships create a strong, caring community for our family.

LOVE IS OUR GREATEST PROMISE

If you decide to choose us

OUR PROMISE AS PARENTS

Thank you for taking the time to learn about our family. We hope that our love for one another shines through. Please know that we would raise your child in a home filled with love, faith, and understanding. We will teach them about God's never-ending love and guide them as they grow into kind, caring and compassionate people.

We want your child to always know about your selfless and loving decision, and how deeply they are loved by you. We promise to be there for them in every moment-to listen, support, and encourage them as they grow. Most of all, we want them to always know how truly and unconditionally they are loved.

Love,
Sarah + Brian
